

GET NATURAL!

INTERACTIVE CURRICULUM IN ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE & SOCIAL STUDIES

Join the Watson-Brown Foundation and the McDuffie Environmental Education Center for this totally interactive Educator's Workshop, featuring hands-on curriculum for grades K through 12 in environmental science and social studies. Learn about archaeology, beaver adaptations, and more. Earn 2 PLU's and have a great time doing it.

June 8, 9 & 10, 2009

9:00am—4:30pm

Cost: $25

2 PLU's

Lunch & snacks daily

To register visit:

www.ettcns.org and look for Interactive Curriculum in Environmental Science & Social Studies

For more information contact:

Michelle Zupan at Hickory Hill,

706-595-7777 or

mzupan@hickory-hill.org, or

Dot Kay at the McDuffie Environmental Education Center

706-339-5457 or kayd@mcduffie.k12.ga.us

Workshop activities are held at Hickory Hill, the Watson-Brown Foundation, and the McDuffie Environmental Education Center in McDuffie County, Georgia.